

In Workshops

WOODY AND STEINA VASULKA, major video experimenters and directors of the Mercer Arts Center Video Kitchen in New York, will teach two video workshops Oct. 1 through Dec. 15 in Media Study, 3323 Bailey Ave., a community image-making laboratory.

One workshop will instruct 25 representatives from area arts organizations in video techniques useful in documenting their organizations. Tapes made will subsequently be shown on area cable television stations.

The other workshop, for 20 area residents, will cover experimental video techniques. Applications are being accepted at Media Study.
