Dear Mr. and Mrs. Vasulka:

Doug Davis suggested I write you and invite you to participate in our TV event on June 12. I am enclosing a brief statement of what is going to happen although Doug may have already described it to you.

During the day of June 12 we are going to host a program of lectures, demonstrations and statements about the new television to which we hope you will contribute. We hope to have a bank of color and black and white monitors in the atrium of the Corcoran together with one AV and one CV deck on which $\frac{1}{2}$ " video tapes can be played. We would like very much for you to participate either by speaking or by playing. We have a dangerously small grant to support all of this madness and our expenses have now pushed us to the point where the payment of further honoraria is not possible. We hope, none the less, that you can somehow participate.

Please call me collect and let me know whether you can come. Doug speaks very highly of your work and we are most anxious to have you here.

Sincerely,

Renato Danese
Curator of Contemporary Art
