

CALENDAR

MANHATTAN PROFILE

June 1 - 30

VIDEO FESTIVAL

The KITCHEN for Electronic Media located at Mercer Arts Center, 240 Mercer St., will present the works of noted Video artists from throughout the U.S. and Canada. Dealing specifically with Video as an Electronic Art Medium, the programs will include unusual color and black and white visual compositions, simultaneous multi-channel video environments, and many other rarely seen forms of electronic art. Adm. $2. For daily programs and times phone 475-9865.

YORK

534-1672

Fifth Ave. at 103rd St.

"Unburied Treasure" - Rare portraits, costume & scene designs, set models and personal memorabilia of Helen Hayes, Cole Porter, Mary Martin, George Gershwin and others. Tues.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 1-5. Free.

INTERNATIONAL HI-FI EXPO

443 Park Ave. So. (30) 683-7721

See & hear the largest selection of high fidelity equipment, including audio furniture, sound chairs from the worlds top manufacturers. Tues.-Fri. 11-5, Sat. 11-4, closed Sun. & Mon.

THE kitchen 475-9865

June 1 - 30

VIDEO FESTIVAL

VIDEO
FESTIVAL

Video as an Electronic Art Medium
as seen thru the works of noted Video artists.

Color and black & white
visual compositions
Simultaneous multichannel
video environments
Many other rarely seen forms of electronic art
Tues.-Wed. 8 PM, Thurs. thru Sun. 9:15
Fri. Late Show 11:30 Adm. $2

MERCER ARTS CENTER
240 MERCER STREET

THE kitchen 475-9865

Starting May 19

VIDEO FREE AMERICA - San Francisco tells the continuing story of Carol and Fred. The Underground Video documentary soap opera. A closed circuit multiple video novel about pornography, sexual identity, the inhibition of marriage and the effect of living too close to an electronic medium. Admission $3

Fri. 7:30, Sat. 7:30 & 11:30, Sun. 3 & 7:30