Dear Woody and Steina:

The Kitchen

We received your letter dated June 28th, and your check in the amount of $3,500.00, dated July 10, 1972. I just want to put in writing our understanding of your arrangement with us:

Gene Frankel's

"Work Shop"

The lease for the year 1972 called for a rental of $10,000.00. To date you have paid $3,000.00, and the check dated July 10th for $3,500.00 makes a total of $6,500.00. This leaves a deficit for the year of $3,500.00. This past week we received a check for $225.00 from Allen Ginsberg for his use of The Kitchen. Applying it to your deficit leaves a balance of $3,275.00.

Viveca Lindfors'

"An Actor Works"

Directors:

We will endeavor to lease your premises through September 15th, and apply any money received to the above deficit. After September 15th we and you will use our best efforts to rent the premises when space is available. In no case will we arrange to rent the premises without your prior approval.

Allan Albert

Gene Frankel

I trust that the above is your understanding of the lease arrangements. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.
