

news from Author Lecture Service

of Doubleday & Company, Inc.

February 3, 1972

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

VIVECA LINDFORS has been decorated with the Order of the Vasa the best known of Sweden's decorations. It is given chiefly in recognition of achievement in business, science, industry, education and the arts. Miss Lindfors' citation is based largely upon her efforts in presenting works of August Strindberg to the American public on Broadway, off Broadway and on film --- rekindling a new wave of interest in the Swedish master.

In conjunction with the award of the Vasa decoration, the Author Lecture Service of Doubleday & Company, Inc. will present a special screening of Miss Lindfors' most recent films:

THE STRONGER - Based on the Play by August Strindberg

AN ACTOR WORKS - Viveca Lindfors preparing a speech from Euripides' The Trojan Women

THE JEWISH WIFE - Bertolt Brecht's one act play

Miss Lindfors and other guests will be available for a discussion of the films:

DATE: February 5, 1972 (Saturday)

TIME: 7:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m.

PLACE: THE KITCHEN
Mercer Arts Center
240 Mercer Street