

The Kitchen Center for Video and Music

December 1976

Entrance on Broome Street between Wooster and West Broadway. All correspondence to: 59 Wooster Street, New York City 10012

Exhibitions Tuesday-Saturday 1-6pm

SIMONE FORTI and PETER VAN RIPER; December 7-11

EARTH, MOON, MARS & JUPITER: Video from interplanetary space; Dec 14-Jan 8

Performances and Concerts All at 8:30pm $3.50 ($2Members) *Free

Wm & Louise Etra ————— Friday, the 3rd*
The Soft Martial Arts ————— Saturday, the 4th
Guy Klucevsek ————— Sunday, the 5th
Gerard Hovagimyan ————— Wednesday, the 8th
William Hooker ————— Friday, the 10th
Keshavan Maslak ————— Saturday, the 11th
Bruce Ditmas ————— Sunday, the 12th
Dickie Landry ————— Thursday+Friday, the 16th+17th
Peter Van Riper with Simone Forti — Saturday+Sunday, the 18th+19th
David Mahler ————— Wednesday, the 29th

Exhibitions

PETER VAN RIPER December 7-11

This: A three channel installation with book, It, readings for performance.

SIMONE FORTI December 7-11

Video documentation of performances at Tokyo Dance Today Festival, Dec. 1975.

Fan Dance (18 min., b&w)
Crawling (10 min., b&w)
Red/Green, with Pooh Kaye,
Terry O'Reilly, Peter Van
Riper, and Simone Forti
(35 min., b&w)

EARTH, MOON, MARS AND JUPITER: Video from Interplanetary Space
December 14-January 8

The Kitchen presents an exhibition of video material collected by manned and unmanned NASA space probes to the Moon, Mars and Jupiter (Apollo, Viking and Pioneer), including on-board footage from Sky Lab and television transmissions to the Earth.

This show is being produced in cooperation with George Bolling.