PLANS FOR THE 11th ANNUAL AVANT GARDE FESTIVAL OF NEW YORK - THE VIDEO PROGRAM

Dear Woody & Stania,

You have probably already received an invitation to participate in the 11th Annual Avant Garde Festival, to be held November 16, at Shea Stadium in Flushing (Queens), New York. In the event that you cannot, or do not, wish to do your own video piece or installation, we would like to show a videotape of yours as part of a continuous 12hr group video showing.

We will be equipped to present EIAJ $\frac{1}{2}$ " color and $\frac{3}{4}$ " videocassette format tapes, displayed by one or two color video projectors (eg. Sony or Advent) in the Press Room at Shea Stadium. Because of time pressures, it will be difficult to show works longer than 30 minutes.

If you would like to participate in the Festival group video program, please send in the title of your work, length, production credits, special playback instructions and any other information you consider important about your tape as soon as possible. We could also use brief biographical material and your autograph for our brochure.

We would appreciate that all tapes arrive by Thursday, November 7 c/o Annual Avant Garde Festival, 47 West 46th street, (Apt. 3-R), NYC, NY, 10036. Where possible, send first generation copies of your master. Your tape will be returned immediately after the one-day Festival and we guarantee that no other use will be made of it beyond the specific November 16 showing.

The group video program is one of the most popular events at the Festival which is always free to the public (attendance at recent Festivals has exceeded the 10,000 figure). In addition the Festival receives a considerable amount of coverage in the local and international art press.

We strongly hope that you will be part of the 11th Annual Avant Garde Festival and look forward to hearing from you soon. We are available around the clock at (212) 246-7616.

We cannot do the Festival without you!
Yours sincerely,

Love Charlotte

Dear Steina & Woody,

Thank you so much for a beautiful Festival.

Each and every artist together with the National Parks Service; Parks, Recreation & Cultural Affairs Administration; New York Police & Fire Departments; United States Coast Guard; Federal Aviation Administration; National Endowment for the Arts; New York State Council on the Arts; Howard Wise of Electronic Arts Intermix (and even the timely ending of the hurricane) brought this year's Festival to over 20,000 New Yorkers. But, as always, the essential ingredient is your vision and hard work.

Thank you again for participating in the 12th Annual Avant Garde Festival of New York & letting us show your tape "Homemade TV" — I only hope you can be in NYC next Festival because we really missed you.

I love you,
Charlon

ARTISTS' INFORMATION FOR THE 12th ANNUAL AVANT GARDE FESTIVAL OF NEW YORK

The 12th Annual Avant Garde Festival will be presented at Gateway National Recreation Area/ Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, N. Y. C. on Saturday, September 27, 1975. Press opening: 11a.m. General public: 1p.m. til midnight. As always, the Festival is free to the public. (Raindate, Sept. 28, regardless of weather).

If you have not already done so, you must supply us the following information:

- 1) A complete list of all equipment you are bringing (with serial numbers where possible).
- 2) A diagram (no matter how primitive) which indicates placement of all equipment, chairs, etc. THIS IS URGENT.
- 3) ALSO URGENT: the electrical requirements of each piece of equipment. There will be no problem providing whatever power you need. But, Floyd Bennett Field is not theatrically equipped, so you must bring your own heavy-duty extension cords, multiple plugs and floodlights etc. if needed.

For the program the absolute deadline for information, eg. titles of works, credits, names of helpers, biographical notes, explanations of your piece, etc. is September 24. If you would like to give a page of information about your work, please bring 300 copies to the Field, by Thursday, September 25 and help us collate a kit to be given to the press.

The Field will be available for you to see from 9am to 5pm daily. Please take advantage of the fact that, unlike previous Festivals, we have several days of advance set-up time. Installation can begin from 10am, Monday, September 22 onwards. Secure equipment storage areas have been arranged. Please tell us in advance the day and time you are coming with your equipment. The Festival will have its own entrance to the Field, but prior to the Festival day, September 27, you will have to use the main entrance to the Field and show the enclosed pass to the guard on duty. In addition, you should place the accompanying car sticker in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield.

We will dismantle our pieces after the end of the Festival at midnight. As in the past, your help in cleaning up would be greatly appreciated. We must leave the Field as we found it.

The Parks Service liason is Patrick Bauer, Park Ranger, (212) 252-9286, (9am to 5pm).

Thank you so much for participating in the 12th Annual Avant Garde Festival.

Love,

Charlotte Mooorman
(212) 246-7616

PS: Be prepared for chilly weather and bring picnic food, the nearest food/shopping is more than 2 miles away. A reminder to participants in the group video, film, and electronic music shows: if you have not already mailed your works I hope you have made alternate delivery arrangements to allow us enough time for programming.

Dear Woody and Steina,

Thank you for a fantastic Festival!

I am very sad that the insurance and funding problems prevented the Alexander Hamilton from going to Poughkeepsie and Albany, but I am very grateful that we had such a beautiful Festival in New York City.

I can not find enough words to thank you for the art, work, time, equipment, love and beauty that you gave to the Festival.

Monday, November 6th, there will be a party for all the people who made the Festival possible at Jim McWilliams' loft 154 W. 27th, 3rd floor from 8 pm on. I hope you will be able to attend.

Thank you for everything,

I love you,

Charles

P.S. Please don't tell Howard Wise about the party, because it is also his Birthday and we want to surprise him.

November 24, 1974

Dear Woody and Steina,

We would like to thank you for your participation in the video program of the 11th Annual Avant Garde Festival; the continuous 12 hour showing was one of our most successful events, with the 150 seat screening room crowded beyond capacity during much of the day.

The video program surveyed the full spectrum of video experimentation and we were particularly pleased with the overall quality of work presented since many in the audience were experiencing video art for the first time.

Equally gratifying was the performance of the Advent color video projector in handling both color and black and white images. With brightness and clarity rivalling the best of conventional t.v. monitors, the 4 -1/4 ft. x 5 - 2/3 ft. Advent screen added a significant new dimension to the act of watching video.

We look forward to showing your latest work in next year's Avant Garde Festival. Until then, with our warmest thanks.....

Very sincerely yours,

Shridhar

History of the Annual New York Avant Garde Festival

In the summer of 1963, John Cage, Earle Brown, Edgard Varese, David Behrman, Morton Feldman, Frederic Rzewski and I conceived the idea of a Festival of the Avant Garde for New York City. I realized this idea by choosing the program, contracting the composers, designing a brochure, addressing and stuffing envelopes and borrowing electronic equipment. For the first two seasons, Norman J. Seaman guaranteed our rental of Judson Hall, printing and mailing, although the ticket receipts were not enough to pay him back in full. Composers wrote new works and performed them; their publishers donated music and tapes; the finest players in NYC gave their rehearsal and concert time; schools and individuals loaned equipment; and highly skilled engineers worked gratis on each program. We worked without pay in order to establish the festival as an annual event.

The first year there were six concerts featuring the works of 28 composers from eight countries, with seven world premieres, 10 American premieres, and three New York premieres. (August 20, 21, 27, 28, September 3 & 4.)

The second year grew from six to ten evenings with the addition of a full-scale production of Stockhausen's Originale. There were works by 34 composers from eight countries with 17 world premieres, six American premieres and 10 New York premieres. (August 30, 31, September 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13.)

For the third season, special evenings of Jazz, Film, Poetry and Dance were added for a total of ~~thirteen evenings~~ 57 works were performed, chosen from approximately 80 scores that had been submitted from all over the world. Because of the limited capacity of Judson Hall, our Festival turned away hundreds. (August 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 31, September 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.)

The fourth Festival took place at Conservatory Pond in Central Park in the open air from 6 AM until midnight, September 9. Sculptors, painters, poets, musicians, dancers, happening folks, playwrights, film makers and electronic composers from 10 countries presented a cross section of advanced research in the arts today with over 75 compositions. The audience totalled 15,000.

Over 30,000 people attended the fifth Festival on board the Staten Island Ferry Boat John F. Kennedy, 11:30 PM Friday September 29th through 11:30 PM September 30th. Approximately 100 artists from Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Iceland, Italy, Japan, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, and the USA presented their newest kinetic light art works, sculptures, video tape recorder compositions, environments, computer compositions as well as films, Jazz, poetry, electronic music, happenings, chamber music and dance in an exposition of the Avant Garde.

The sixth Festival was a parade down Central Park West on Saturday, September 14th, 7 to 10 PM, ending in Central Park from 10 PM 'till midnight. Artists and art works on floats, foot, push carts, stilts, placards, banners and some sailing through the air suspended from helium-filled balloons gave education and recreation to thousands of New Yorkers, as well as an opportunity to display their newest works to the public. As in past years, the artists donated their own time and materials to make the Festival a success, and major New York industries including Consolidated Edison and Hertz Rent-a-Truck helped to support our Parade.

The seventh Festival was presented on two islands in the East River — Wards Island September 28th through October 4th and Mill Rock Island October 26th through 31st. Works that should be viewed from a distance (inflatable sculptures, a 90-foot flame-lit tower, tree glass sounds, sky art, neon sculpture, island outlined with balloons and electric lights) were on Mill Rock and works that should be experienced at closer range (environments, television art, films, jazz, electronic music, computer murals, poetry, electric-sucha, etc.) were on Wards Island. Over 150 artists' works were displayed in structures designed and donated by Buckminster Fuller (geodesic dome) and Yale Professor Felix Drury (polyuruthane structure), in open air exhibits, hung from trees, floating on the water, and flying in the sky.

The eighth Festival at the 69th Regiment Infantry Armory, Lexington Avenue at 25th Street, November 19th, Noon until Midnight, was attended by over 20,000 New Yorkers. Works included premieres of the Video Synthesizers of Shuya Abe-Nam June Paik and the one by Eric Siegel; Shirley Clark's 45-foot "Video Ferris Wheel"; a "Video Kinetic Environment" by Woody & Steina Vasulka; a 12-hour videotape show; Otto Piene's 35-foot "Inflated Flowers Sculpture"; a 4-hour concert piped in from California Institute of the Arts; Yoko Ono's 16-foot plexiglass "Human Maze" and other sculptures; orchestral "Wind Piece" by John Lennon; Geoff Hendrick's 12-hour meditation "Ring Piece"; a glider airplane event, "Docking" by Ken Dewey; Jim McWilliams' 9-foot Birthday Cake; a small Global Village by John Reilly & Rudi Stern; individual video exhibits by Douglas Davis, Ken Dominick, Ralph Hocking, Aldo Tambellini & The Video Freex; Robert Breer's moving "Rug"; a sound structure "Electronic Banquet" by Liz Phillips; audience making random drawings in Fred Stern's "Computer Composition"; plus over 100 pieces, poetry, happenings, electronic music, computer art, environments, and a continual film show premiering 33 films.

The goal of the Festival is to bring before the public the best experimental works, both American and International. The only requirement for selection for the Festival is the quality of the work, not the reputation of the artist; thus, young unknowns are given an equal chance for performance. It is important that the Avant Garde get as fair a hearing as is possible. The Annual New York Avant Garde Festival is dedicated to this purpose and is fast becoming an equivalent in America to the Palermo Festival (Italy), the Warsaw Festival (Poland), the Sogetsu Art Center (Japan), Darmstadt (Germany), as it was before Dr. Steinicke's death, the Daueneschenger Series (Germany) or the Zagreb Biennale (Yugoslavia).

Because NYC is now the center of the art world, as Paris was in the 20's, artists come from all over the world to participate in the Festival. It has achieved an undisputed position as one of the most significant and internationally acclaimed cultural events presented in this country. Some of the more than 600 works presented were by Abe, Andersen, Andrews, Apple, Ashley, Austin, Ay-o, Baille, Balkin, Battcock, Bayrak, Behrman, Bekaert, Berio, Beuys, Bienstock, Black, Brakhage, Brecht, Breer, Brock, Broughton, Brown, Buehler, Bueno, Bussotti, Cage, Camnitzer, Cassen, Chiari, Christiansen, Christo, Clarke, Conner, Connor, Cooper, Copobianco, Corner, Cowan, Crofts, Davis, Davison, Devyatkin, Dewey, Dominick, Downey, Duga, Dupuy, Emshwiller, Engel, Feelisch, Feldman, Ferrari, Ferro, Filliou, Fischer, Forbes, Frampton, Frazier, Fried, Fulop, Gelmetti, Gerson, Gillette, Giordiano, Giorno, Giuffre, Goldstein, Gosewitz, Greenfield, Grossi, Hansen, Harris, Hausmann, Heckman, Heinz, Heliczer, Helms, Hendricks, Hidalgo, Higgins, Hirsch, Hocking, Hogel, Horowitz, Hulsenbeck, Ichiyonagi, Imura, Immendorff, Isgro, Isobe, Jacobs, James, Johnson, Jones, Jordan, Kagel, Kaprow, Klintberg, Kluver, Knowles, Knowlton, Konecny, Kosugi, Krap, Kubota, Larrain, Lebel, Lee, Lenabat, Lennon, Le Parc, Levine, Lezak, Lieberman, Liscia,

The 14th Annual Avant Garde Festival of New York will join the 2nd Annual Cambridge River Festival in flying over, floating on, emerging from, and lining the banks of the Charles River with inflatables, water pieces, air art, dance, laser imagery, computer art, films, performances, projections, video, and music. This is the first time that two events of this nature and scope have come together for a grand celebration of the arts.

The Annual Avant Garde Festival of New York is designed to bring new audiences in touch with the latest works of artists in modes ranging from complex applications of advanced technologies to the most basic forms of expression in poetry, music, dance, and theater. The Festival has always been concerned with the innovative use of public spaces for the presentation of art. In past years this has led to unique and spectacular events at Shea Stadium, Grand Central Station, on the Alexander Hamilton Hudson River Boat, at the 69th Regiment Armory, in Central Park, on Wards and Mill Rock Islands, in C.A.M.I. Hall, as a parade down Central Park West, at Gateway National Park/Floyd Bennett Field, aboard the Staten Island Ferry, and, last year, at the World Trade Center, all in New York City.

The Cambridge River Festival is an annual week-long (May 14-20) celebration of the city, spring, and art, sponsored by the Cambridge Arts Council, an agency formed by the Cambridge City Council in 1974, with a mandate to enhance the lives of its citizens through the arts and to maintain the city's diverse cultural heritage. The Festival unites the talents of every variety of creative Cantabrigian to celebrate the city's own special character - reflecting
